The U.S. Mail Agency offered full services including registry during the 1914 occupation of North Eastern Mexico. This cover was used Sept. 30, 1914, from Vera Cruz by a soldier in the 28th Infantry to Washington, D.C. The VERA CRUZ, MEXICO/ U.S. MAIL AGENCY killer was used on registry and on parcels. The registry cachet handstamp was a captured device used by the Agency.

"Vera Cruz Mexico US Mail Agency" registered to Washington DC 30 Sept 1914 at 2 X 2 cents soldier's rate + 10 cents registry fee. Washington backstamp Ex-Frajola, Landau. Reduced 3/4" at left but
